

College of the Liberal Arts Skills Escape Room - ANSWER KEY

TEAM	Team #1		Team #2		Team #3
CLUES	Clue	Answer	Clue	Answer	Clue	Answer
Instructions
Clue 1-1	This BA program is for students who like deciphering a geopolitical puzzle: It combines economics, history, and political science to explore topics like human rights, ethnic conflict, and national security.	International Politics	Unlock the world of words! This BA program explores the rich tapestry of global literary tradition. Analyze themes, styles, and cultural contexts. Decipher themes in novels, poems, plays, reveal connections that span continents and centuries.	Comparative Literature	This BA/Minor program develops skills in information and media literacy, the ability to judge content for historical accuracy, use information technologies such as digital archives, and to synthesize events over the course of time to understand how they lead to modern-day events.	History
Clue 1-2	Unlock the secret of la dolce vita! This BA/BS/Minor program delves into history, modern culture, literature, and cinema of one of the most culturally significant countries of Europe. Best if you are interested in studying in places like Bologna or Venice.	Italian	Learn how humans work, and work together. This BA/BS/minor program encompasses themes in talent management, equity, workers' rights, and social, cultural, and professional issues. Be a standout professional in the modern workplace!	Labor and Human Resources	This BA/BS/Minor program emphasizes understanding human cultures and societies of our "one world." Students pursue research, international experiences, and expertise from humanities and social sciences for an interdisciplinary approach to problems across the globe.	Global and International Studies
Clue 1-3	This BA/BS program prepares students for a variety of careers. Students take a multidisciplinary approach with law, research methods, psychology, and sociology to the study of crime and the justice system.	Criminology	Do you want to learn about methods for successful professional and personal endeavors? This minor program combines communication, law, policy, psychology, and more to learn about perspectives and challenges to decision making and communication.	Ethics	Not sure if a program is right for you? This BA allows students to make their own choices about their education, think creatively about how to design their courses of study, research methods, critical theory analysis, effective written and oral communication skills, and application to a theme of students' own design.	Multidisciplinary Studies
Keyword #1	NITTANY		BEAVER		ATHERTON
Clue 2-1	One of the oldest subjects in recorded history, this BA/BS/Minor program builds critical thinking skills, knowledge about the mind and thought, ethics, social responsibility, and communication. Although the field is old, it remains relevant in technologically complex, diverse, and global communities.	Philosophy	Travel to the past! This BA/minor program spans different historic time periods and geographies. Students learn to analyze different texts through means such as digital archives, corpora, literature, and apply contextual understanding to decisions made from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance.	Medieval Studies	This minor program emphasizes creative thinking and problem solving, and written communication. Students can pursue a variety of fields such as writing, publishing, media, social and humanistic inquiry, and even higher education programs with excellence in written, as well as oral, communication skills.	Creative Writing
Clue 2-2	Study one of the most prominent Romance languages through this BA/BS/minor program! Choose a path of literary or linguistic inquiry, develop effective oral and written communication skills, and become a globalized citizen. Study abroad in Ronda, Puebla, Cádiz, and more.	Spanish	This is one of the most popular programs in the College. This BA/BS/Minor program addresses the scientific study of human behavioral patterns. Specific tracks emphasize cultural and communicative understanding, others emphasize data analysis, research questions, and the ability to gather data.	Psychology	This BA/BS/Integrated program is a popular choice for students who want to deepen their knowledge of data analysis, numerical and statistical skills, and effective research of market and monetary trends. Students are ready upon graduation to work with different organizations, government, and more to help make effective decisions.	Economics

TEAM	Team #1		Team #2		Team #3
CLUES	Clue	Answer	Clue	Answer	Clue	Answer
Clue 2-3	This minor program investigates human sexuality and identity from a multidisciplinary and cross-cultural perspective. Students learn to see race, ethnicity, nationality, class, and other factors in conjunction with other social groups to tackle inequity and oppression.	Sexuality and Gender Studies	Ich spreche ein wenig Deutsch! This BA/BS/minor program is interdisciplinary, covering languages, literatures, and politics of one of Europe and the United States. A lot of residents of PA have ancestry from this culture.	German	Tudo bem ! This minor program develops effective oral and written communication skills in a language other than English. Students learn cultural competence and understanding, and can study various media such as film and literature from authors in countries such as Brazil, or Lusophone Africa.	Portuguese
Keyword #2	PUGH		LION		PENN
Clue 3-1	This minor program helps students think critically about the connections between faith, rituals, belief systems, and culture and politics. Students synthesize millennia of events in the field to understand present-day outcomes.	Religious Studies	This BA/BS/Minor program is for students who are interested in government, public policy, power and resource allocation in society. Students gain skills in analysis of theories, cultural awareness, statistics, ethical decision making, to succeed in the realm of government.	Political Science	Smeal and Liberal Arts unite! This minor program emphasizes communication skills, global cultural competence, and expertise in political theory. Students learn entrepreneurship, ethics, and leadership, as well as other generalizable skills, applied to business professions.	Business and the Liberal Arts
Clue 3-2	This BS program teaches students to think critically about information from technology, address political, economic, and social problems through information analysis and techniques. Identify patterns and develop data-driven answers!	Social Data Analytics	This BA/minor program examines the history of people of African descent, systems of racial inequity, policy, and social, political, and cultural movements that Black people have developed to promote excellence and equity in Black social life and the African Diaspora.	African American Studies	This minor program emphasizes ethically-informed decision making, effective synthesis of large amounts of information about human health. Students will work in helping or people-oriented professions such as health care and medicine, public health, bioinformatics, public policy, and more.	Bioethics and Medical Humanities
Clue 3-3	This BA/BS/Minor program develops one of the most important skills you can learn in college. Students use theories that span humanities and social sciences to promote greater understanding of oral, written, and nonverbal communication.	Communication Arts and Sciences	Step into el mundo de Bad Bunny. Examine history, politics, art, geopolitical, cultural, and sociological themes of places such as the Dominican Republic, Brazil, and beyond. This program pairs well with a language program like Spanish or Portuguese.	Latin American Studies	How many languages do you speak? This BA/Minor program studies how we communicate. Students learn how to examine large data sets and extrapolate patterns, become effective communicators with a variety of different groups, and get creative with logical problem solving, programming, or other computational technologies applied to language study.	Linguistics
Keyword #3	COLLEGE		STATE		OLDMAIN
END	Congratulations!		Congratulations!		Congratulations!	